McMAHON TRIAL STILL CONTINUES AT UNIONTOWN

Attorneys For the Defense Working Hard for Verdict of Self Defense. Witnesses Are Being Examined.

The defense in the trial of T. Lafayette McMahon, who killed John Sisto at Gray's Landing, opened yesterday morning. Attorney John Keenan, of Greensburg, is assisting Attorney McKean for defense The first witness called was Capt. William Lloyd, commander of the steamer "Rose Hite," from which the Italians who figured in the trouble disembarked. He was standing on upper deck of the "Rose Hite" when the fight started. He heard someone yell; "There's a fight," and on looking around saw the Italians throwing stones. He heard four shots and at the fourth one of the men fell. This fellow, the witness testified, had thrown three stones, and had his arm uplifted to hurl the fourth when the bullet cut him down.

Charles Dillinger of New Geneva, was on the same boat. He told practically the same story.

Miss Eleanor Trunninger, of Redstone, went on the stand Monday afternoon and corroborated the commonwealth assertion that McMahon got mud on his clothes after the shooting, and not by being knocked and beaten by the attacking Italians. After McMahon had left the pump house she saw him look over the bank evidently to ascertain if he was being watched by the Italians. He then climbed onto the flat boat and pulled into the river. About that time he threw some object into the river. This it is believed, is the automatic revolver which was thrown away and which could not be found.

There were several foreign witnesses examined during the afternoon but nothing of marked importance developed from their testimony. It is likely the witnesses will all be heard today or some time tomorrow, and the case brought to a close.

THOU SHALT NOT SPIT

Manager Shuster of the local opera house, has formed new resolutions and hereafter some of the things which tend to interfere with the comfort and pleasure of the patrons will be cut out entirely. Spitting over the floor has become such an abomination and is so annoying both to the management of the house and the patrons that a rigid enforcement of the spitting ordinance, so far as the opera house is concerned, will hereafter be made and any person caught spitting on the floor of the house will be arrested and fined.

There are other things too that interfere greatly with the pleasure of the theatre-goer, among those being loud and shrill whistling in the form of applause and cracking peanuts during the performance. These things Mr. Shuster declares will not be tolerated any longer as they tend to mar the success of the performances and have a tendency to keep the better class of people from patronizing the house.

Aside from these obstacles which have been encountered since the opening of the opera house there have been other annoyances. Boys who have no training at home, no manners and without regard for public property congregate about the building, throw stones through the windows and destroy everything that they come in contact with.

These boys will be watched hereafter and if caught in the act will be arrested and fined no matter who they are, and the parents will have to abide by the consequences.

It is the intention of the management to keep the Monessen opera house up to the highest standard of excellence possible, consistant with the size and age of the town and there is only one way to do it and that is by having the strictest rules and have them closely adhered to and all those who refuse to adhere to civil decorum should be compelled to remain outside.

DEPUTIES ARE AFTER SLAYERS OF JOHN WILHELM.

Young Man Who Did the Shooting Escaped Into the Swamps and is Giving Officers a Lively Chase.

A detail of Troop A of the state police and half a dozen deputy sheriffs are scouring the country about Youngwood in search of David Suttlemoyer, who last night is alleged to have shot from ambush John Wilhelm, a 17-year-old boy of Youngwood. Wilhelm is at the Westmoreland hospital, a heavy charge of shot having shattered the vertebrae at the base of the neck, exposing the spinal cord.

Monday Mrs. Suttlemoyer perferred a charge of surety of the peace against her husband before Justice of the Peace J. F. Beatty of Greensburg. While the wife was away from home in the early evening Suttlemoyer returned and got his shotgun. Mrs. Suttlemoyer learned of this and went to the training stables on the Youngwood fair grounds to borrow a revolver from Percy Pue.

She was accompanied by young Wilhelm who had been paying attention to one of her daughters. Just as they were passing Floral Hill, Suttlemoyer shot from behind a shed. Wilhelm fell wounded. Another shot was fired at the woman, but it missed her. Suttlemoyer fled, thinking that he had wounded Pue.

A special train brought Wilhelm to the hospital. Deputy Sheriff's were taken to Youngwood on the special train and they searched the swamps about Youngwood for Suttlemoyer until daylight. Mrs. Suttlemoyer is 40 years old and is handsome.

A BETTER FUTURE

Criticism or credit may fall o certain ones for the raid of ose dastardly dens in Wire-on but that counts for nothng in the estimation of the eople living in the commun-
y. The Monessen people el that the state constabu-ary has done excellent work ere and great credit reflects o them for cleaning out one f the worst hell holes in the ate. Murders have been ommitted, speakeasies, gamb-ng dens and bawdy houses ave been maintained and in ct "bridge row" was gaining wide reputation on account
f the vice and crime shelter-d there. The future will ke care of itself. We re-ret exceedingly that the ate officials departed with a eling of enmity toward our cal officers, but however just eir censure, they must re-ember that the head officers every community are en-tled to certain courtesies and arks of respect which can shown through a little nfidence placed at the right
ne. The trouble should ve been avoided through e exercise of common judg-nt. We feel that the raid ll be the means of mould-g for this section a brighter aner and better future and this the people of Mones-n feel grateful for the excel-nt work done in getting rid the bloody, brutal band of nds incarnate that have ested the community for so ng a time.

RATE LEGISLATION

The Pennsylvania railroad icials may be discussed newhat for voluntary action the reduction of rates at present time on account proposed legislation to rece the rate for travel from o 2 cents a mile but all will agree that it is far better to anticipate than to await the power of legal compulsion. It is perfectly natural that a lower rate of passenger fare should come with an increase in the density of population and increased travel. The influence of trolley lines upon steam passenger traffic is also to be taken into account, as one of the causes of this change in the rate basis of passenger business. Then, too it is being recognized more than formerly that the good will of the public is worth having, not only in an emergency, but as a regular thing. The days when public opinion could be trifled with in these matters are gone.

MAYOR Shutterly has declared war on the pedlars who operate in the town without paying license. That's right. The Monessen merchants can't dodge taxes and neither should the stranger. Hucksters and pedlars if you don't pay a license its "23" for you. Hike! Skidoo!

Read this letter

Galien, Mich.

Gentlemen: I bought three bottles of your medicine from my druggist. The medicine rendered me very good service, but I am sorry to say that the druggists here are all sold out of your medicine. I should have bought six bottles instead of three. I will gladly take six bottles of the Nervine and Blood Tonic, and request that you write me, if you are able to read this, for I am rather old to write. I have suffered six years from NERVOUS TROUBLE, caused by a fall, and my whole body remained in a tremble, but no pain. Every doctor I consulted failed to help me, and I was compelled to give up all housework. Then I read your advertisement and bought your medicine, and almost immediately after commencing its use I was a new woman. I hope you will write me at once, and tell me how much money I must send, as I am anxious to get to using your medicine again soon. With most hearty regards, I remain,

EMERY MUST ANSWER

Serious Allegations Which the Candidate For Governor Must Meet.

CASTLE AND SWALLOW SPEAK

The Democratic-Lincolnite Nominee Called Upon to Declare Himself Upon Serious Matters in the State Canvass.

[Special Correspondence.]

Harrisburg, September 18.

Lewis Emery, Jr., the Democratic-Lincolnite candidate for governor, has been on the defensive ever since he was nominated.

He has been charged with many delinquencies, to put it mildly, and he has failed to answer a single charge.

He has been accused of placing the church upon the same plan with the brewery, he has been condemned for attacking the Standard Oil company while being a partner in an oil trust, which, as far as it goes, is quite as much of a public menace as is the Rockefeller trust. He has been condemned for failure to appreciate the Christian spirit evinced in the maintenance of the Sabbath, he has been weakened by the attacks that have been made upon him for accepting rebates from the railroads, while proclaiming to the world his unalterable opposition to the system which has been denounced by every Republican orator that has appeared upon the platform during the present campaign, and he has shown a personal weakness in meeting such issues, that have, in the opinion of many, practically put him out of the race for the governorship.

Homer L. Castle, the Prohibition candidate for governor, accentuated the issue of "the Church vs. the Brewery," in his speech delivered recently in Harrisburg, when he said:

"I must insist that Mr. Emery is not fit to be the governor of this state, because his mental ideals are low and tremendously warped. He sits down in cold blood and writes a letter to a man, in which he puts the church and the school house and the hospital on a parity with a brewery. Just think of it!

As to the Church.

"The church, which, aside from the home, is the only institution which has Divine sanction and ordination.

"The church, which has stood for these ages as the sign present of God with man.

"The church, into whose life has been poured the thoughts of the best men and women that have ever lived.

"The church, for whose life so many men have laid down theirs and willingly surrendered all they had and were, that it might have life.

"The church, whose spires point the mariner on life's sea the way to the better.

"The church, into whose portals you and I went as boys, and where first the minister of God laid his hands in blessing on our heads.

"The church, where our names were enrolled and where every Sabbath we meet and catch a fresh breath from the atmosphere of higher life.

"The church, to whose altar you and I led the woman who became part and parcel of our lives, and heard the minister say, 'Whom God hath joined together let no man put asunder.'

"The church, through whose door we carried for the last time the body of a sainted mother.

"The church, that comes to the bedside as all things terrestrial seems to recede from us, and touching our fading eyesight, makes us to see glories beyond. This church is no better, in the ideas of Lewis Emery, than a brewery, and I am not objecting to Mr. Emery's ideals.

"Some have said that he is honest when he makes these statements. Let that stand for the fact, and his very honesty makes him the more ineligible as the governor of a Christian commonwealth.

"The objection that I urge to him is not that he believes that the church and the brewery are upon a level, but that the man who does believe that ought not to be foremost in a Christian commonwealth.

"We have in this state approximately 5000 ministers of that church; we have at least 5,000,000 attendants upon the public services of that church, and, to put it in the parlance of the street, I say it is up to that church to demonstrate by declining to support Mr. Emery, that it does not believe that it is a fact that they are no better than the brewery."

Mr. Castle then gave testimony as to the great work of the public schools and the hospitals of the commonwealth, which, he said, Mr. Emery had, with the church, linked in the same category of the breweries.

He recounted a story about Mr. Emery making a speech on a Sunday at a gathering of Italians, "where beer flowed freely," and on this point he said, among other things: "I do not ask Mr. Emery to reverence the Christian Sabbath day. I do not insist that he shall go to church; I do not even insist that he shall not attend Italian brawls, but I do insist that the man who does that is not fit to be governor of a Christian commonwealth.

"Beyond the peradventure of a doubt, it is the duty of the church to take a hand in this fight, not alone for the maintenance of its own honor, but for the maintenance of the honor of the country."

Emery's Oil Trust.

Mr. Castle then discussed at length Mr. Emery's business operations, declaring that the Pure Oil company, with which he had been identified, is as much of a trust in its way as is the Standard Oil company.

Upon this point, among other things, he said:

"I have said, furthermore, that Mr. Emery is not sincere in his opposition to the present Republican reign. It is known that Mr. Emery has as his partners in the Pure Oil Company such men as McNichol, Durham and Mack. Mr. Emery has been repeatedly asked to show the people of this state the books where these men paid (if they ever did pay) for the stock which they hold. He has been asked to tell what relations this stock has to the New Jersey legislative manipulations and the Pennsylvania legislature; heretofore, so far as I know, he has never given any reply to this. If he does not tell that miserable story, I will tell it in due time.

"It is of very recent date that he has opposed Senator Penrose. I am reliably informed that about the time that Judge Stewart declined to be the Republican candidate, Mr. Emery, in company with Mr. Woodbury, of Schuylkill county, and some others, visited Senator Penrose in Washington and undertook to make a deal with him."

Mr. Emery has been seeking to make political capital out of his attacks upon the Standard Oil company.

He has as yet failed to answer Mr. Castle's direct charge that Mr. Emery's oil interests have been beneficiaries of rebates, quite as much as has the Standard Oil company in their limited way.

Upon this subject Mr. Castle, at Corry, last week said:

"Is this canvass of Lewis Emery, Jr., a fair, candid, honest canvass, based upon actual conditions of the men themselves, or is it a pure sham and a fake and a fraud? As bearing upon that I am reminded of the fact that Lewis Emery appeared before the industrial commission and gave testimony, in 1899, and by turning to page 669, volume 1, of the printed reports of that commission, we find this interesting bit of information:

Emery's Old Testimony.

"These questions were directed to Mr. Emery when on the witness stand, and the answers are his:

"'Have you frequently in your business enjoyed rebates?' was asked Mr. Emery, and his reply follows:

"'No, sir; never. Now let me modify that. In my business previous to 1872, in the refinery in Titusville, Pa., rebates were a common thing, but we were young and new in the commercial business, and fellows in Cleveland and Pittsburg were a little more experienced. We didn't seem to make very much money. They were running full tilt with their wells, barrel shops and everything, and we began to look about to see what was the matter. We went to Pittsburg, and learned to our astonishment that certain concerns were getting 25 cents a barrel. We were large shippers, and we demanded to be granted the same. That was away back in 1870. We were given 25 cents; and then we got on to the fact that some refiners were receiving 75 cents back and some other refiners were receiving 50 cents. The rate at that time was in the neighborhood of $1.50, and oil could be carried at a profit today at 25 cents. From that time to this, no, I am not guilty.'

"It is, perhaps, interesting also to note that there is filed with the interstate commerce commission in Washington a paper showing that as late as 1897 the Emery Manufacturing company, of Bradford, was shipping to the Emery Manufacturing company, at Buffalo, N. Y., by the Buffalo, Rochester & Pittsburg railroad, a large number of cars that were billed as acid, when in fact they contained oil. The rate on acid was 5 cents per 100 pounds, and the rate on oil was 8½ cents. And in that way they were getting rebates on their oil by falsely billing the oils which they were shipping to Buffalo, and which were being paid for by W. H. Foote & Co."

Castle's Defi to Emery.

Mr. Castle challenged Mr. Emery to prove the charge that the Castle company was being financed by the Standard Oil company. If the charge were proven, Mr. Castle said, he would retire from the contest. "If I fail to prove any of the charges I have made against Mr. Emery, I will also quit the field," Mr. Castle said, "and if Mr. Emery does not explain away these charges, then he should quit the contest.

"In respect to receiving Standard Oil money, we are better than Mr. Emery is. He at one time, about 1885, went broke, and he went to New York to secure help from the Standard Oil company, and that company discovering that he had a lot of iron tanks on his hands that were really junk, bought them from him, paid him about $250,000 for them, and he took that money and reinstated himself. And after he had received the money he declared publicly, and I am prepared to prove it, if he ever again raised his hands against the Standard Oil company he hoped God would wither them from his body. Is he keeping that vow now in this false-pretense campaign of his?"

Dr. Silas C. Swallow, late Prohibition candidate for president, has been even more personal than Mr. Castle in his public comments upon Mr. Emery.

In a recent Harrisburg speech Dr. Swallow said:

Dr. Swallow's Hot Shot.

"Having fought nearly to a finish the Quay gang for 10 or more years, we are not quite content to have foisted on us a fake reformer or counterfeit who has used in his business, as we have the court records to prove, the very identical methods employed by the Standard Oil company, public prejudice against which is the popular hobby on which he proposes to ride into undeserved power.

"The kind of a man we want in the gubernatorial chair might be described by a description of the kind we don't want. We don't want a protege of the almost defunct Quay dynasty, nor of the corporate influence of the state. Nor do we want a man whose efforts for reform have enriched himself and his friends from the coffers of those whom he professes to hate and fight; nor one whose crusade for reform has been confined to the furtherance of his own monetary interests; nor one who places the brewery on a parity with the church, the school and the hospital."

After some very direct references to Mr. Emery's alleged personal habits, Dr. Swallow said: "We must not put into the gubernatorial chair an egotistic boaster or a man of low breeding or of salacious views of society, or one who put the people of our great state to shame by his coarse motives, manners and methods."

HAPPY WOMEN.

Wouldn't any woman be happy,
After years of backache suffering,
Days of misery, nights of unrest,
The distress of urinary troubles,
To find relief and cure?
No reason why any reader
Should suffer in the face of evidence like this:

Mrs. Almira A. Jackson, of East Front St., Traverse City, Mich., says: "For twenty years I was doctoring for kidney and liver trouble, but without benefit. Just before I began using Doan's Kidney Pills I was almost paralyzed. I could hardly stand on my feet because of the numbness and lack of circulation. Had a knife been thrust into my kidneys the pain could not have been more intense. My sleep was disturbed by visions of distorted figures. The kidney secretions were annoyingly irregular, and I was tortured with thirst and always bloated. I used seven boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. The bloating subsided until I weighed 100 pounds less, could sleep like a child and was relieved of the pain and the irregularity of the kidney action. My circulation is good and I feel better in every way."

A FREE TRIAL of this great kidney medicine which cured Mrs. Jackson will be mailed on application to any part of the United States. Address Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y. For sale by all druggists; price, 50 cents per box.

SPRINGS OF HIERAPOLIS.

Wonderful Waters That Petrify Everything They Encounter.

Hierapolis is a strange ruined city of Asia Minor. It was founded about 200 B. C. and a large part of the place has been buried by the petrifying water of hot springs. The country round Hierapolis is today infested with brigands. A traveler who visited the place under an armed guard of Turkish soldiers says: "The temperature of the springs is that of a very warm bath and while hot there is not a trace of that petrifying element which renders the waters so remarkable after they have cooled and causes them to turn to stone every object they encounter after very slight immersion. The swimming bath itself is about fifty feet to sixty feet in length and in many places from twelve to fifteen feet deep, and is today almost as it was in Roman times. The opportunity to take a natural hot bath was not lost upon the writer. The floor and sides and steps are of white marble and the depth varies to suit the convenience of the swimmer. Some great upheaval has brought down the marble columns which once decorated the sides of the bath and they lie across it in picturesque disorder, some almost intact, others broken into many fragments.

"One of the columns has so fallen across the bath that its base is exposed while its slanting top shines gleaming white beneath the water at a depth of some ten feet. On this column one can lie with one's head out of water and it is not possible to imagine a bath enjoyable under more ideal conditions. The water flows out of the basin in many little rivulets and a few hundred yards from its source begins to develop its petrifying nature. As it cools its bed becomes white with a hard, chalky substance and no living thing or plant can resist its stony grip. The grasses and leaves which fall into its deadly waters find their grave upon its surface and the flowers which dip their heads into the streams turn into petrified images of themselves, counterfeiting nature in stone, even to their slender petals.

"The fall from the top of the cliff into the valley is in some cases abrupt and steep and in others gradual. In the latter a succession of basins has been formed descending the slopes in ever diminishing size, as the waters in their descent have overflowed from one rim to another. Stalactites depend from the top of the cliff, and formations like gigantic beehives glimmer in the sun. Seen from a distance, the very waters appear to have been caught and turned to rock as they flowed and noiseless waterfalls of stone take the place of the liquid element."—Chicago News.

It was the small brother of pretty Margaret who opened the front door in response to Mr. Goodyear's ring, and his face took on a singularly alert expression as he surveyed the caller.

"No, she isn't in," said Margaret's brother. "Are—are you Mr. Hamlin?"

"No," said the young man; "I am Mr. Goodyear. Does that make any difference about her being at home?" And he looked searchingly at the boy.

"Course not," said Bobby indignantly. "I don't tell stories, nor Margaret doesn't. But if you'd been Mr. Hamlin I was to tell something about her coming home and get 10 cents if I did it right and didn't tell the wrong one. I need that money, and so, you see, I didn't want to make any mistake. Goodby."—Youth's Companion.

The Perverse Golf Ball.

A collector of evidence on the subject maintains learnedly that the golf ball is the most perverse of human institutions. Here is a list of strange lies noted by a follower of the ancient game: In another player's pocket, where it had dropped after traveling 200 yards; in a cow's mouth; on the roof of a clubhouse; behind the glass protecting a painting hanging on a cottage wall; in a clump of daisies, which it so resembled that it was not found for an hour. When it fell in the cow's mouth the frightened animal galloped 276 yards nearer the hole and then restored the ball to its owner. He promptly claimed to have driven it 397 yards and the right to play it from where it lay.

A Hard Shot.

A prominent lawyer in Ohio, who was very eccentric, always rubbed his hands and went through several other movements before speaking. One day while in court a younger lawyer, after seeing him do this several times, got up and did it, too, in a very slow and deliberate manner, and, after saying what he was going to, sat down, whereupon the older man got up and said, "That young man acts like a good lawyer, but he talks like a fool."

We may as well own up to the truth that the conventional abuse of our climate and our weather has been greatly overdone. His Lesson.

A woman who had divorced her husband met him after many years.

"Have you married again?" she asked.

The man shook his head.

"Ah!" sighed the woman. "You still love me."

"No," said the man, "I love myself."

He was asked to explain.

"Bondage taught me the value of freedom," he replied. "I am answerable now only to myself. I come when I please, go when I please, do what I please and need not make explanation. I no longer divide my pleasures by two or multiply my worries by the same number. What I earn is mine and, when I contemplate its possible reduction, I need fear for myself alone. I have no great joys, but then I have no great sorrows."

"And love?" inquired the woman.

"I have been married," answered the man.-Channing Pollock in Show.

The Bird's Bill Was Locked.

A curious bird tragedy is told about in the London Field. A man found a yellow hammer dead in his yard at the foot of a wall. The bird had flown against it with such force as to be stunned. Not only that, but the upper mandible had been bent back, and in the straightening out the sharp point was driven down through the lower bill and locked, thus dooming the bird to death by starvation. The man sent the head to the Field. A good many similar accidents have been recorded, but it was always a heavier bird, whose weight made the springing of the bill easier. A good many of the birds were found in a starved condition, showing that they died lingering deaths from want of food.
